TONIGHTS ARTIST

SCOTT ROSS

American harpsichordist Scott Ross became interested in that instrument while studying at the Conservatoire in Nice, France. He entered the prestigious Bruges International Harpsichord Competition in 1971 and won the First Prize, which until that year the judges had never awarded.

Since then, Ross has performed extensively in Europe and North America, recorded the complete works of Rameau (Telefunken) and Couperin (STIL), both receiving the "Grand Prix du Disque Français" award. More recently, Ross has been heard on Canadian and foreign radio networks in the "Goldberg" Variations and the Well-Tempered Clavier of Bach.

The series continues TUESDAY, November 13, 1984 . . .
